GOVERNORS URGE NATIONAL DEFENSE

Addresses Favoring Adequate Preparation Against Invasion Made at Boston. Next Convention to Salt Lake.

Boston, August 27.—After discussion of the naval and military resources of the country, in which it was generally agreed that the United States was not adequately prepared against foreign invasion, the conference of governors ended its annual sessions today. No resolutions were proposed, but several executives said they felt certain all the governors would return with the intention of demanding from their congressmen support in any program for strengthening the nation's defense.

Next Meeting at Salt Lake.—The governors chose Salt Lake City for next year's meeting and elected the governor of Utah, William Stry, chairman of the executive committee. Other committee members elected were Governor Henry C. Stuart, of Virginia, and Governor Arthur Capper, of Kansas. Former Governor John Franklin Fort, of New Jersey, again was chosen treasurer, and Miles C. Kelly, of Maryland, was re-elected secretary. The conference program, which had included a review of the Atlantic fleet and a parade of the Massachusetts militia, had aroused great interest in today's discussion. The sessions were removed to a spacious hall and a big audience followed the address of Secretary of Commerce Redfield, speaking, not in behalf of the administration, but as a member of it. He said, urged restraint of speech and sobriety of thought in what he termed these trying times.

"With that spirit of restraint," he said, "should we not be ready for any emergency of any kind that may arise? Should we not at least have the tools ready, not for offense, but for our defense of our nation?"

Governor Fielder, of New Jersey, Governors Urged Preparedness.

Governor Fielder to New Jersey, urged an increase in the standing army by at least 25,000 men with an adequate line of trained reservists. He said he felt the states should be ready at all times to furnish 250,000 men to this reserve body.

Cordial agreement with Governor Fielder's statement by Governor Dunne, of Illinois, who said he felt the nation's reliance for a reserve force might well be found in a requirement that every college and university receiving funds from the federal government should give four years of military training to its students.

"It was declared on the United States by any of the principal European nations tomorrow it must be admitted that the situation would be a precedent one," he said. Governor Dunne said that any Great Britain or Germany could take possession or destroy all means of manufacturing equipment in the United States, such plants being situated within 100 miles of New York city.

Board to Inform Congress.

Governor Hammond, of Minnesota, emphasizing what he said was the fact that the country had spent hundreds of millions more dollars for its army and navy than any other nation in the world, recommended the creation of some board which would be able thoroughly to inform congress of the needs for national defense.

He said he was not so pessimistic as some of the speakers, but he was not without a suspicion that if need arose, we would find that we were not doing as well as we should in our own defense. It was his opinion that the nation must depend largely on the patriotism of its people for defense, that the men would not stand for compulsory military service and the nation cannot afford to hire its soldiers.

Governor Goldsborough, of Maryland, expressed the belief that an extension of measures of defense was necessary.

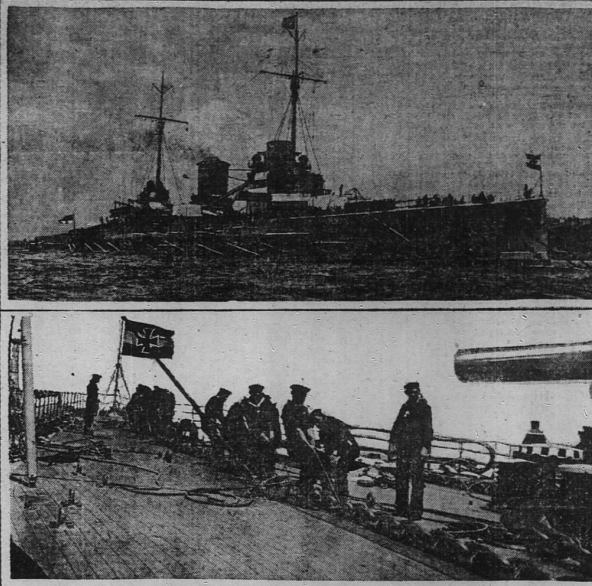

Governor Trammell, of Florida, felt that dependence was to be placed in the citizen soldiery and was applauded when he added "if the European war lasts two years more, as seems likely, there will not be a first-class army or navy in the world except our own."

Adequate Preparation Urged.

Adequate preparedness was urged by Governor Stuart, of Virginia, while from Governor Walsh, of Massachusetts, came the suggestion that state or federal provision be made for bringing into the schools the boys and girls to develop as citizen soldiers.

A new note was struck by Francis McGovern, of Maine, for the constitution. "We have been mentally reformed," he exclaimed, "by this international propaganda for peace. But it has been advanced in America. Our people have been over-persuaded by

CRUISER MOLTKE GREATLY ADMIRER WHEN SHE PAID A VISIT TO AMERICA

MOLTKE AND SAILORS ON DECK. The German battle cruiser Moltke, reported sunk in the battle of Riga, aroused admiration for her graceful lines when she visited New York in 1912. She was 410 feet long, with a displacement of 22,840 tons and a speed of 28 1/2 knots. She was completed in 1912 and carried ten 11-inch, twelve 5.9-inch and twelve 3.4-inch guns. In addition, she had four 30-inch torpedo tubes, and was said to have cost more than $12,000,000. The Moltke visited this country to return the visit to Kiel of the American battleship squadron that made the trip around the world. She carried a complement of 1,107 officers and men. She first came noted in the war when she was in battle with the British North sea fleet last January in the engagement in which the German cruiser Blucher was sunk.

This movement which has rubbed the officers of our state militia "in soldiers' and has removed the incentive of officers and men was found in as little danger to the nation today as at any time in a score of years. Nevertheless, we can never be secure until we put the country in a state of real preparedness, such as its vast interior demands.

The conference during the forenoon considered "conservation of mankind and natural resources," as discussed by John A. Dix, former governor of New York, and by Governor Ernest C. Lester, of Washington.

HAITI SOON TO RATIFY PROTECTORATE TREATY

Washington, August 27.—Prompt ratification of the proposed American protectorate treaty by the Haitian parliament was forecast today in state department dispatches from Charge D'Affaires at Port au Prince, President Aristide Haïm, head of the new government, is committed to the convention and is believed to have assurances of support from senators and delegates to get favorable action within a few days.

It became known today that plans of the United States for putting Haiti in order contemplated calling on the war department, if necessary, to furnish officers for the island police force. A corps of non-commissioned officers who have developed and commanded the Philippine constabulary, American marines will remain on the island pending setting up of the machinery of the protectorate. Some opposition is expected from the religious element on the north, but little real trouble is looked for.

Strikers Close Canneries.

Pass Christian, Miss., August 27.—A large cannery company here and another at Biloxi, Miss., announced today that they would close their plants for this season owing to troubles between striking members of the International Longshoremen's Union and shrimp packers. Packers received reports that armed strikers Wednesday held up four shrimp schooners and seized the fishermen's seine and skiffs.

IT'S A LARGE ORDER TO WATCH ROOSEVELT

Secretary Garrison Declares in Commenting on Colonel's Recent "Indiscreet" Speech.

Washington, August 27.—Secretary Garrison made public today Major General Wood's reply to the secretary's telegram directing that no repetition be permitted of the incident at the Plattburg camp precipitated by Colonel Roosevelt's speech.

"Your telegram received and policy laid down will be rigidly adhered to," General Wood telegraphed.

"I have just read Mr. Roosevelt's statement," said Secretary Garrison in a statement today. "I see he blames the whole thing on me. He takes the position that it is notorious that he has the habit of making indiscreet remarks and that if so to head him off and save him from himself. Well, maybe that's so, but it's a very active man and I am a very busy one and it's going to be a pretty hard job for me to keep my eye on him all the time. The colonel's attitude about himself reminds me of the story of the Maine farmer, who was on his way to the railroad station one morning when he met a friend.

"Where you going?" said the friend. He replied, "I'm going down to Bangor to get drunk—and great Lord, how I do dread it."

Concerning a Certain Colonial Mahogany Dining Room Set

let us say just this—were we to search through the whole Furniture Store for the one dining room set that is, at its present price, the greatest value we could offer, we would have to stop at this particular set.

The SIDEBOARD is 72 inches long—solid mahogany, two side compartments, one center compartment fitted with linen drawers, much as a chiffonier is. Even the bottoms of the drawers are mahogany.

The CHINA CABINET, 48 inches wide, has a mirror back and plate glass shelves.

The SERVING TABLE is 54 inches long.

The TABLE is 60 inches, 8-foot extension, solid mahogany top.

The CHAIRS to match are $95.00.

The set as a whole is rich, rather massive, betraying a far greater worth than its price.

You may see it in the great window of the Furniture Store.

SLAYING OF PREACHER SHROUDED IN MYSTERY

Gary, Ind., August 27.—Rev. Edmund A. M. Kayser, who was killed at Tolleston, a suburb last Tuesday night, was buried today, the mystery surrounding his death apparently still impenetrable. The body, bound with cords, was discovered in the yard of his home, near the church of which he was the pastor. The arrest of Thomas Modjesch, an inspector at the Gary Steel mill, and a statement of Attorney Clyde Hunter that Kayser was slain by his own revolver as a result of a quarrel over business matters with persons who called on him the night of the murder, furnished today's developments.

The nature of information leading up to the arrest of Modjesch was guarded by Police Chief Heintz, who said he merely wished to state the man, Chief of Police Heintz said he had no opinion whether the clergyman was killed because of his program "utterances" or for other reasons.

Clmer Leroy, an Englishman, said to have denounced Kayser in his church some weeks ago, was taken into custody, but was released.

E. W. Andree, president of the German Alliance of Hammond, Ind., late tonight asserted that after investigation he had come to the conclusion that Kayser was murdered by a sympathizer of the German cause. The pastor's alleged denunciation of England, Russia and France.

PROPOSE COMPROMISE IN PROHIBITION FIGHT

If Governor Includes "Dry" Bills in Extra Session Call, McMichael Expects Fight.

E. H. McMichael, of Marion county, was in Atlanta a short while Friday morning on his way to his home in Marion county. He is expected to be in Marion county on Sunday morning. McMichael states that he has visited many counties from the Florida line as far north as Jacksonville, in the past three weeks, and that he finds, from close observation, that Georgia's cotton crop will be about 55 or 60 per cent of what it was last year.

Asked about the special session of the legislature soon to be called, and what subjects, in his opinion, should be included, Mr. McMichael was emphatic in expressing himself.

"First, I want to say," he said, "that I am a hearty supporter of the Georgia legislature to adjourn as they did, without passing the appropriation bill. It does seem to me that the majority should have said to the minority, which it claimed, was in control of the rules committee, 'A majority of us are in favor of prohibition, and we have tried to get from you, the rules committee, an order to bring the prohibition bill for a special order, but you have denied us our right; now we will perform our duty; we will not force an extra session of the legislature upon the people of Georgia, but we will pass thousands of dollars, but we will do our duty; we will pass the bill, and we will not put you on notice, here and now, of the session of 1916, we will have a vote on the further business.'"

Do you think, the governor should include prohibition in his call for a special session?

"Well, in answer to that question, I will say, if Governor Harris opens up full and unlimited discussion of the liquor question in the special session, I will not object, in my opinion, to the prohibitionists who will prolong the fight by dilatory tactics and by dilatory tactics, our people are growing in 1915, the majority is strong and the minority is weak, of indefinite length."
